

LANGUAGES

TOP TEN

- Make a list of ALL the countries in the world that speak Spanish, and try not to be astonished by how many there are!
- Research Spanish and Central/South American festivals, they have many weird and wonderful traditions. Which is your favourite one? Why?
- Go to a Spanish tapas restaurant and have a go at ordering in Spanish; make sure you greet the server with ¡Hola!
- Listen out for Spanish songs on the radio. What songs are they? See if you can find out what country they are from.
- If you go to Spain, take as many pictures as possible of things that are unusual or different to life in England and eat as much Tapas as possible; ¡la comida es súper delicious!
- See if there are any Salsa or Tango lessons in your area, go along and join in.
- Find out some information about the Spanish royal family. How are they different from our royal family? Where do they live?
- Like cooking? Try making a Spanish tortilla, you'll get a head start for when we do this as P&P and film it – who said homework was boring?
- Can you find out how many languages are spoken in Spain? Here's a clue, it's not just one! · And lastly, try watching Zipi y Zape if you enjoy a bit of adventure.